

Interested in a city career you can do from home? Anti-Money Laundering Compliance Coach (Trainee)

Do you live in the Western Highlands and Islands?

Could we interest you in one of the 20+ careers in AML Compliance we plan to create in the Western Highlands and Islands by May 2027?

You will join a fun-loving bunch, and while we all work remotely, you will build strong friendships and connections across Scotland.

If successful, you will join a group of three other trainee AML Coaches on a starting salary of £26,000. After completing your basic training, which will last between four and six months, your salary will increase to £28,000 for the remainder of the first year. By the end of year one, you will be a fully qualified AML Coach, and your salary will rise to £32,000 at the start of year two.

You will enjoy the best of both worlds. You can keep living in a beautiful part of Scotland while having a fulfilling career in AML Onboarding for legal firms in Edinburgh, Glasgow, and possibly London and beyond.

We are a software company that has developed specialised AML software to help legal firms comply with their AML obligations. Our AML Onboarding team uses this software to provide an outsourced AML onboarding service to legal firms throughout Scotland.

There is high demand for this service, and we plan to recruit groups of up to 4 people every few months throughout 2026 and 2027 to meet it. We aim to start the first group of four on the 2nd February 2026 and will continue recruiting and training new groups every few months until we fulfil the demand.

If a February start is too soon for you but you're interested, get in touch and, if successful, we will reserve a place for you in one of the groups starting later in 2026.

Kind regards
